In Conversation with the Commissioner of Charities

EMERGING STRONGER THROUGH COLLABORATION

Faced with various changes brought about by COVID-19, charities need to stay relevant and impactful in meeting the evolving needs. The third installation of "In Conversation with the Commissioner of Charities" challenges charities to rethink their usual mode of operations and explore new ways of working through collaboration and digitalisation.

SAFEGUARDING CHARITIES

(FRAUD PREVENTION, ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING & COUNTERING THE FINANCING OF TERRORISM)

Charities can be targeted by unscrupulous parties, becoming victims of fraud, or are being made use of for money laundering or terrorist financing. This webinar equips charities with understanding on these areas, the criminal consequences and practical knowledge of how to guard against such situations.
